HOW IT WORKS

Qualifying for Micro-Scholarships: Students can earn Micro-Scholarships based on the opportunities they participate in. Micro-Scholarships can be awarded retroactively for Students' previous accomplishments, if expressly stated by a College or Sponsor. Retroactive cases could include, by way of example, when a Student adds an achievement accomplished in the past. Select Micro-Scholarships may only be awarded to a finite number of Students, as stated in the College's or Sponsor's award criteria. Certain Micro-Scholarships may have eligibility requirements that are based on a Student's grade point average ("GPA"). Excelerate reserves the right to verify any Student's accomplishments. Any information found to be false or misleading may disqualify that Student from all Micro-Scholarships. In addition, the Colleges and/or Sponsors that have awarded Micro-Scholarships to that Student may be notified of that Student's disqualification.

Applying to College: Students' Excelerate profiles do not take the place of any college entrance application, nor do they guarantee Students admittance to any college. Excelerate does not make any guarantees, representations, or promises that the Services or any Micro-Scholarships will assist you in getting admitted into college, except that the use of the Excelerate platform shall not reduce the likelihood of acceptance through a College Partner's admissions process.

Redeeming Micro-Scholarships:

Unless otherwise stated by any College or Sponsor, all micro scholarships can be redeemed at the partner university/college/sponsor that has awarded the same. The terms of redemption are set forth by university/college/sponsor and can be updated at any time. To be eligible to redeem your Micro-Scholarships with the College you ultimately attend, and ensure your profile is complete (meaning your personal information is correct). The Micro-Scholarships you earn on Excelerate for each particular College represent a minimum amount of scholarship or grant aid that the College is willing to include in your financial aid package if you are admitted to and attend that College. If you receive an even larger scholarship or grant upon admission (based on your college application or FAFSA), then that scholarship or grant will include or replace the Micro-Scholarships you have earned on Excelerate, at the College's sole discretion. Colleges or Sponsors may disburse Micro-Scholarships as part of, or separate from, any financial aid package.

Each College or Sponsor controls the method through which it disburses Micro-Scholarships and Excelerate is not responsible for any disputes between a Sponsor and/or College, and a Student regarding disbursement. Colleges and/or Sponsors may suspend a Student's redemption of Micro-Scholarships if the Student is not enrolled full-time or does not maintain compliance with other institutional criteria. Micro-Scholarships from Colleges or Sponsors may be contingent on the Student's maintaining a minimum grade point average ("GPA"). A Student will lose such Micro-Scholarships for the period during which his or her GPA falls below the minimum requirement. Such Student's Micro-Scholarships may be restored when his or her GPA rises back above the minimum; however, the Student will not be reimbursed for the portion of Micro-Scholarships lost while the Student's GPA was below the minimum requirement.

The fulfillment of each Micro-Scholarship is the sole responsibility of the College or Sponsor awarding such Micro-Scholarship(s). Excelerate is not and will not be responsible for the fulfillment of any Micro-Scholarship(s). Students can only redeem Micro-Scholarships from a College if they are admitted to, enroll at, and attend that particular school. Colleges/Universities/ and Sponsors must honor all Micro-Scholarship commitments made to Students on Excelerate, provided such Students are admitted to, enroll at, and attend the applicable College.

Transfer Students: Micro-Scholarships can be redeemed by transfer students unless a Sponsor expressly states otherwise on the Services. If a Student transfers to a College where he or she has received Micro-Scholarships, the awarding College shall honor the corresponding proportion of Micro-Scholarships
